HEALTH BOARD MEETING

At a meeting of the Board of Health yesterday afternoon there were present the following: President Wood, Dr. Day, F. M. Hatch, Minister Cooper, Geo. W. Smith and F. J. Lowrey. After reading the minutes of the meeting Thursday and the resolutions regarding Block 19 adopted at a meeting Friday, President Wood brought up several freight matters which had been mentioned to him by various merchants of the town.

H. Hackfeld & Co. wanted permission to ship European goods to the other islands in original packages after subjecting the same to a form of disinfection approved by the Board. Others had complained about the lack of coal at certain places on the other islands and asked to be allowed to ship some.

Dr. Wood then went on to speak about the unsatisfactory method of hauling the vessels to within six feet away from the wharves and keeping them there by means of lines only. Sometimes one end of the island steamer would be nine feet away from a wharf and the other only about two feet. He had objected very strenuously to this but the men told him that, in taking heavy machinery aboard, a steamer was bound to swing in on account of the weight. After this, timbers jutting six feet out from the wharf will be used so that there will be no possibility of getting in closer than six feet.

President Wood stated that it would be best, now that the existence of the plague has gone beyond the time expected, to again look over the Board's list of permitted goods and revise it. During the first three weeks the lines were drawn very close to prevent any possibility of the plague getting to the other islands, but the people there could not be allowed to starve and other things were added to the list when it was found that the epidemic was not ceasing.

Mr. Hatch brought up the matter of a proper appliance for the fumigation of the holds of vessels, particularly large vessels from the Orient. It was then moved that a committee be appointed to look into the matter and Dr. Wood chose Dr. Day and Geo. W. Smith.

Here arose a discussion on the shipment of wines and food. Mr. Smith did not like the idea of allowing the former and prohibiting the latter. Salmon and beef in cans should be allowed to go to the other islands after disinfection.

President Wood next read the communication from the Citizens' Sanitary Committee, reference to which was made in yesterday's Bulletin. Mr. Hatch said: "The members of the Board appreciate very highly the approval of the Citizens' Sanitary Committee and regret their dissatisfaction. At the same time the Committee's views are from one side of the case only and would not influence the Board at all in its consideration of the matter. The Board deeply appreciates the valuable assistance which the Sanitary Committee has rendered and they value their assistance more than their approval. The Committee seems to lose sight of the judicial element of the Board altogether. The Board is a body whose functions are judicial in their nature. It has to weigh the facts. An irresponsible man could not do that. The Board is a responsible body."

One of the members remarked that the Citizens' Sanitary Committee could assist the Board very much by ferreting out Ah Hung's whereabouts in Kakaako and Pauoa before his death. Any assistance which the newspapers could give in the matter would be greatly appreciated.

Dr. Wood stated that he had asked the assistance of the committee. Mr. Thurston was unable to give him any information through his sub-inspectors. Marshal Brown had also been unsuccessful.

Mr. Hatch remarked that, while appreciating thoroughly the work of the Committee there was yet a chance of helping the Board trace the movements of Ah Hung. As to the destruction of the Hotel stables it was not a question of reconsidering any former decision. Nothing had been said about burning. The question of damage to business should receive some consideration. The mere burning of the place would amount to but little.

It was Minister Cooper's opinion that, if there was no evidence that the stables were infected, it would be wrong to burn them. Until such evidence is obtained the Board had no right to act hastily.

Dr. Wood stated that there would be no justice in acting hastily. It was the Board's duty to find, if possible, the other places where Ah Hung stayed. The source of infection must be traced. This Chinaman may have got his infection from Kakaako or Pauoa or he may have been staying with Ah Chong on King street.

Mr. Smith remarked that, in the editorial columns of the Star was the assertion that the whole Board of Health should not be censured for a minority was in favor of burning the stables in the same manner as other buildings. Mr. Smith continued that he knew this was not the case. The Board was unanimous in its decisions.

It was unanimously resolved that a special committee be appointed to investigate the matter of opening streets through the burned district with the recommendation that some means of easy access be furnished for reaching the exterior of the block. The matter was then referred to the proper authorities.

"The Hawaiian Scenic Calendar" for 1900, published only by the Golden Rule Bazaar, 316 Fort street, is a beautiful work of art. It eclipses all previous efforts in this line and nothing would be more appropriate at this time than to mail one of these to the folks at home. Price 50 cents.

Kahului Property Owners.

Walluku, Feb. 18.—The biggest property owners affected by the late Chinatown fire at Kahului are the Maui Land and Railway Company, consisting of W. J. Lowrey, Mr. Stoltz and others.

Their income from rents alone has been nearly $5,000 for the past year, and no wonder that the owners of the plague infected shacks attempted to save the buildings from being condemned by Dr. Wood at the public meeting held in Kahului on the 11th inst.

The fire is welcomed by all except the property owners and they are shanties in Walluku town on Market street, Chinatown, that need to be condemned as a safeguard against the plague.

The entire block is owned by Young Hee, Enos & Co., Mrs. J. T. Aluli and Mr. Goodness. While some buildings are fairly good, the majority are nothing more than shacks and continual eyesores to the community. While Wallukuans do not care for the honor of stating that Walluku town proper is the district bounded within the long row of old dilapidated frame buildings known as Chinatown, yet such is the bare fact, and will remain so until Providence wipes the unsightly shacks out of existence, and new ones rise up from the ashes.

It is understood that the committee appraised the property of the Maui Land and Railway Company which was burned the other day at $16,000. The same property was bought from S. Ahm several years ago for less than one half the amount. Of course there have been some improvements upon the property.

Kahului Shipping.
